Call to Worship - adapted from the Iona Community

Creator of the world, eternal God
A followers of Christ, we have come from many places for a little while.

Redeemer of humanity, God with us.
We have come with all our differences
seeking common ground.

Spirit of unity, go-between God.
We have come on journeys of our own
to a place where journeys meet.

So here in this sheltering place
let us take time together
For where paths cross and pilgrims gather
there is much to share and celebrate.
In your name, three-in one-God
Pattern of community, we come. Amen

Hymn - Morning has broken - Gaelic melody

Morning has broken like the first morning,
Blackbird has spoken like the first bird.
Praise for the singing. Praise for the morning
Praise for them springing fresh from the world.

Sweet the rain's new fall, sunlit from heaven
Like the first dewfall on the first grass
Praise for the sweetness of the wet garden
Sprung in completeness where his feet pass

Mine is the sunlight. Mine is the morning.
Born of the one light Eden saw play
Praise with elation, praise ev'ry morning
God's recreation of the new day.

Scripture Reading in Gaelic - Psalm 16 - Alison Thornton

Prayer - Peter Matheson

The Story of Andrew the Patron Saint of Scotland

The Call of Andrew - Matthew 4: 18-22 - Lorimer Scots Version - Peter Matheson

Andrew's Song from the Iona Community, Scotland
Tune : Sky Boat Song

Casting their nets, along by the shore,
Andrew and Simon pause.
Maybe they've seen the Teacher before,
'Follow me,' Jesus calls:

Come, follow me! Haul in the catch.
Men, women, children too.
Come, follow me, do not look back,
For we have much to do.'

Drawn by his words and healed by his hands,
Thousands sat on the hill.
Andrew espied a boy with some bread
Everyone ate their fill: Chorus

Andrew's example, casting his net,
Still stirs the Church to share
Good news about the teacher we've met
Tell it out everywhere! Chorus

Ancient Prayer of Blessing

The Story of St Margaret of Scotland

Hymn - Tune : Amazing Grace. Lyrics : Walter Hendrie
Minister from Scotland who served at St Giles, Christchurch

Amazing Grace, how sweet the sound that changed my life for me.
I once was lost, but now am found,
was blind but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to love,
that drove out hate and fear.
God's bounteous grace sent from above
of all God's gifts most dear.

God, grant this tender loving grace
to all who turn to you,
that they who look upon your face,
may find their peace in you

May they, through all the timeless years,
walk in your path divine,
cast out their pain, their guilt, their fear,
as you have cast out mine.

Hymn - An Invitation. Will you come and follow me?

Lyrics :John L. Bell & Graham Maule.

Tune Kelvingrove: Traditional Scottish melody.

Will you come and follow me if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know and never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown? Will you let my name be known,
Will you let my life be grown in you and you in me?

Will you leave yourself behind if I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind and never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare should your life attract or scare?
Will you let me answer prayer in you and you in me?

Will you let the blinded see if I but call your name?
Will you set the prisoners free and never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean and do such as this unseen,
and admit to what I mean in you and you in me?

Will you love the "you" you hide if I but call your name?
Will you quell the fear inside and never be the same?
Will you use the faith you've found to reshape the world around,
through my sight and touch and sound in you and you in me?

Lord your summons echoes true when you but call my name.
Let me turn and follow you and never be the same.
In Your company I'll go where Your love and footsteps show.
Thus I'll move and live and grow in you and you in me.
