music by Karl Jenkins (b. 1944)

from “The Armed Man- A Mass for Peace

We are invited to worship

Based on Hosea 11:1-4

Remember God’s people.

Israel was a child in Egypt and God called them out like a loving mother.

Remember God’s people.

Israel was a child in the desert and God taught them to walk like a patient father.

Remember God’s people.

Israel was lost and afraid and God lifted them into her arms.

God fed them and wrapped them in clothes of love.

We remember! Through Jesus Christ, Israel’s story becomes ours.

And we too become children of God.

We sing God’s praise

(ST ANNE) CH4 161 vv. 1, 4-6

1 O God our help in ages past,
our hope for years to come,
our shelter from the stormy blast,
and our eternal home!

3. Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
bears all of us away;
they fly forgotten, as a dream
dies at the opening day.

2 A thousand ages in thy sight
are like an evening gone;
short as the watch that ends the night
before the rising sun.

4 O God, our help in ages past,
our hope for years to come,
be thou our guard while troubles last,
and our eternal home.

We are welcomed in God’s love

Kia noho a Ihowa ki a koutou. May God be with you.

Ma Ihowa koe e manaaki. May God bless you.

We pray and are assured of God's great love

E te whanau a te Karaiti, brothers and sisters in Christ Jesus,
In his name we are forgiven. Thanks be to God.

We share the peace of Christ

Kia tau tonu te rangimarie o te Ariki ki a koutou; The peace of Christ be with you all.
And also with you.

Our choir leads us in praying

"O You who sleep in Flanders Fields"

text Moina Michael (1915),

We prepare to hear God's Word: World Peace Day

In commemorating World Peace Day, you are invited during the service to actively participate. You could write a short prayer with the piece of paper and pen provided. Alternatively you could make an origami peace crane or decorate a peace symbol in the side chapel. These offerings will be taken up during our regular offering later in the service.

(PRAYER OF ST FRANCIS) CH4 528

1 Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there is hatred let me bring your
love;
where there is injury, your pardon, Lord;
and where there's doubt, true faith in you.

*Oh, Master grant that I may never seek
so much to be consoled as to console;
to be understood as to understand;
to be loved, as to love with all my soul.*

2. Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there's despair in life let me bring
hope;
where there is darkness, only light;
and where there's sadness, ever joy.
[Refrain]

3. Make me a channel of your peace.
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
in giving of ourselves that we receive;
and in dying that we're born to eternal life.
[Refrain]

We pray for others

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours
now and for ever. Amen.

E tō mātou Matua i te rangi
Kia tapu tōu Ingoa.
Kia tae mai tōu rangatiratanga.
Kia meatia tāu e pai ai
ki runga ki te whenua,
kia rite anō ki tō te rangi.
Hōmai ki a mātou āiane
he taro mā mātou mō tēnei rā.
Murua ō mātou hara,
Me mātou hoki e muru nei
i ō te hunga e hara ana ki a mātou.
Āua hoki mātou e kawea kia whakawaia;
Engari whakaorangia mātou i te kino:
Nōu hoki te rangatiratanga, te kaha,
me te korōria, Āke āke āke. Āmine.

We sing

(HE CAME SINGING LOVE) WOV 636

1 He came singing love
and he lived singing love;
he died, singing love.
He arose in silence.
For the love to go on
we must make it our song:
you and I be the singers.

3 He came singing hope
and he lived singing hope;
he died, singing hope.
He arose in silence.
For the hope to go on
we must make it our song:
you and I be the singers.

2 He came singing faith
and he lived singing faith;
he died, singing faith.
He arose in silence.
For the faith to go on
we must make it our song:
you and I be the singers.

4 He came singing peace
and he lived singing peace;
he died, singing peace.
He arose in silence.
For the peace to go on
we must make it our song:
you and I be the singers.

We are blessed in going
